Intervjuguide

Bakgrundsfrågor

How old are you?

What education do you have?

- How long have you been working as a sports psychologist?
- Which sports are you most familiar to work with?
- Can you name any of the teams or individuals you have worked with?
- Are you working with any team or individual right now?

- Are you psychical active in any sports at the moment?

* Do you know how the co-operation is between the English Football Associations and Sports psychologists are for the moment?

  - Do you know how the co-operations started?
  - Were there any barriers that you are familiar with?

* What are your thoughts about the future concerning the co-operations between the FA and sports psychologist’s?

  - What development possibilities are there do you think?
  - How is the rumour about sports psychologist among the English Football teams today?
    (I read in your article that it almost was embarrassing for a team to work with a sports psychologist)

* What specific characteristics do you think is necessary for a sports psychologist to be provided with?

  - How do you think is the best way for a sports psychologist to integrate with a team/association or an individual?
  - How do you separate your work with teams comparing to individuals?
  - What are the most applied/used areas of sports psychology?

* How soon do you think the co-operation between a young athlete and a sports psychologist can begin?

  - Are there any differences to work with men comparing to women?
  - Are there any differences to work with young athletes comparing to the older?